Beth Goldman has appeared at the library as three characters in Norwood: A Look Back (I can't remember the name, Margot), Mrs. Nesbitt, Housekeeper to the Nation, Emily Dickinson in The Belle of Amherst, and presented in Keep Your Fork, There's Pie. Beth is currently working on a new production of Grace and Glorie, and this winter will be at the Black Box Theater in Mansfield in Moon Over Buffalo.

Beth is a graduate of Northwestern University and has an MFA in Acting from Brandeis University. She has taught acting at Fitchburg State College and Norwood High School, has directed at many local theaters and continues in coaching actors.

Beth is a member of AFTRA and is an Actor's Equity candidate.

Join actor Beth Goldman as she tells the story of a "Donut Dollie" named Betty and an Army nurse named Alice who served in the European Theater of World War 2. Their story takes place in 1944 when General Patton's Army is slugging its way through war-torn France into Belgium. In this chaos of war, Red Cross "Donut Dollies," and Army Nurses came together to help the troops, and offer them a reminder of home.
